ARTICLE I
INTRODUCTION AND DEFINITION OF TERMS

A. Introduction

The Board of Directors, officers and employees of JG Summit Holdings, Inc. (the “Company” or the “Corporation”) are committed to the principles of corporate governance contained in this Corporate Governance Manual. The Board recognizes that Corporate Governance is a necessary component of sound business management that will contribute to the improvement of the value of the Corporation for the benefit of its shareholders and stakeholders.

B. Definition of Terms

- 1. Articles of Incorporation – refers to the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation and all amendments thereto;
- 2. Board of Directors or “Board” – refers to the governing body elected by the Shareholders that exercises the corporate powers of a Corporation, conducts all its business and controls its properties;
- 3. By-Laws – refers to the By-Laws of the Corporation and all amendments thereto;
- 4. Chief Audit Executive – refers to the highest position in the Corporation responsible for Internal Audit activities;
- 5. Chief Compliance Officer – refers to the highest position in the Corporation responsible for the compliance function and is primarily liable to the Corporation and its Shareholders;
- 6. Corporate Governance – refers to the system of stewardship and control to guide Corporations in fulfilling their long-term economic, moral, legal and social obligations towards their Stakeholders. It is the system of direction, feedback and control using regulations, performance standards and ethical guidelines to hold the Board and Senior Management accountable for ensuring ethical behavior – reconciling long-term customer satisfaction with Shareholders value – for the benefit of all Stakeholders and society;
- 7. Enterprise Risk Management or ERM – refers to the process, effected by the Corporation’s Board of Directors, management and other personnel, applied in strategy setting and across the enterprise that is designed to identify potential events that may affect the Corporation, manage risks to be within its risk appetite, and provide reasonable assurance regarding the achievement of the Corporation's objectives;

- 8. Exchange or Philippine Stock Exchange – refers to an organized market place or facility that brings together buyers and sellers, and executes trading of securities and/or commodities;
- 9. Executive Director – refers to a Director who has executive responsibility on the day-to-day operations of a part or the whole of the Corporation;
- 10. Independent Director – refers to a person who is independent of management and the controlling Shareholders, and is free from any business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with his exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his responsibilities as a Director. An Independent Director refers to a person who, ideally:
 - 10.1. Is not, or has not been a Senior Officer or employee of the covered Company unless there has been change in the controlling interest ownership of the Company;
 - 10.2. Is not, and has not been in the three years immediately preceding election, a Director of the covered Company, a Director, Officer, employee of the covered Company's subsidiaries, associates, affiliates or related companies; or a Director, Officer, employee of the covered Company's substantial Shareholders and its related companies;
 - 10.3. Has not been appointed in the covered Company, its subsidiaries, associates, affiliates or related companies as Chairman "Emeritus", "Ex-Officio" Director/Officer or Member of any Advisory Board, or otherwise appointed in a capacity to assist the Board in the performance of its duties and responsibilities within three years immediately preceding his election;
 - 10.4. Is not an owner of more than two percent (2%) of the outstanding shares of the covered Company, its subsidiaries, associates, affiliates or related companies;
 - 10.5. Is not a relative of a Director, Officer, or substantial Shareholder of the covered Company or any of its related companies or of any of its substantial Shareholder. For this purpose, relatives include spouse, parent, child, brother, sister and the spouse of such child, brother or sister;
 - 10.6. Is not acting as a nominee or representative of any Director of the covered Company or any of its related companies;
 - 10.7. Is not a securities broker-dealer of listed companies and registered issuers of securities;

- 10.8. Is not retained, either in his personal capacity or through a firm, as a professional adviser, auditor, consultant, agent or counsel of the covered Company, any of its related companies or substantial Shareholders, or is otherwise independent of Management and free from any business or other relationship within the three years immediately preceding the date of his election;
- 10.9. Does not engage or has not engaged, whether by himself or with other persons or through a firm of which he is a partner, Director or substantial Shareholders, other than such transactions that are conducted at arm's length and could not materially interfere with or influence the exercise of his independent judgment;
- 10.10. Is not affiliated with any non-profit Corporation that receives significant funding from the covered Company or any of its related companies or substantial Shareholders; and
- 10.11. Is not employed as an executive Officer of another Company where any of the covered Company's executives serve as Directors.
- 10.12. As a rule, independent directors may serve for a maximum of nine (9) consecutive years starting from 2012, making sure however that the shareholders' legal right to vote and be as directors remains inviolable. If the Corporation wants to retain an independent director who has served for nine consecutive years, the Board shall provide meritorious justifications and advise the shareholders of such justification during the annual shareholders meeting.

11. Internal Audit – refers to an independent Internal audit function that provides an independent objective assurance, and consulting services designed to add value and improve the Corporation's operations, and help accomplish its objectives by providing a systematic and disciplined approach in the evaluation and improvement of the effectiveness of risk management, control and governance processes. This will also refer to into in this manual as the group in the Corporation that is responsible of the internal audit function.

12. Internal Control – refers to a process designed and effected by the Board of Directors, Senior Management, and all levels of personnel to provide reasonable assurance on the achievement of objectives through efficient and effective operations; reliable, complete and timely financial and management information; and compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and the Corporation's policies and procedures;

13. Internal Control System – refers to the framework under which internal controls are developed and implemented (alone or in concert with other policies and procedures) to manage and control a particular risk or business activity, or combination of risks or business activities, to which the Corporation is exposed;

- 14. Management, also referred to as Officers – refers to a group of executives given the authority by the Board of Directors to implement the policies it has laid down in the conduct of the business of the Corporation;
- 15. Non-audit Work – refers to the other services offered by an External Auditor to a Corporation that are not directly related and relevant to its statutory audit functions, such as, accounting, payroll, bookkeeping, reconciliation, computer project management, data processing, or information technology outsourcing services, internal audit, and other services that may compromise the independence and objectivity of an External Auditor;
- 16. Non-Executive Director – refers to a director who has no executive responsibility and does not perform any work related to the day-to-day operations of the Corporation;
- 17. Related Party – refers to the Company’s subsidiaries, as well as affiliates and any party (including their subsidiaries, affiliates and special purpose entities), that the Company exerts direct or indirect control over or that exerts direct or indirect control over the Company; the Company’s Directors; Officers; Shareholders and Related Interests (DOSRI), and their close family members, as well as corresponding persons in affiliated companies; and such other person or juridical entity whose interest may pose a potential conflict with the interest of the Company.
- 18. Related Party Transaction or RPT – refers to the transfer of resources, services or obligations between a reporting Corporation and a Related Party, regardless of whether a price is charged. It should be interpreted broadly to include not only transactions that are entered into with Related Parties, but also outstanding transactions that are entered into with an unrelated party that subsequently becomes a Related Party.
- 19. Stakeholder – refers to any individual, organization, or society at large who can either affect and/or be affected by the Company’s strategies, policies, business decisions and operations, in general. This includes, among others, customers, creditors, employees, suppliers, investors, as well as the government and community in which it operates.

ARTICLE II
RULES OF INTERPRETATION

- A. Unless the context otherwise requires:
 - 1. Words in the singular include the plural, and vice versa; and
 - 2. Words importing any gender include all genders.
- B. A reference to a statute or statutory provision shall be construed as a reference to the statute or provision as from time to time amended, modified, or re-enacted, any repealed statute or statutory provision which it re-enacts, and any orders, rules and regulations made under the relevant statute or statutory provision.
- C. The headings of this Revised Corporate Governance Manual (the “Manual”) are inserted solely for convenience of reference and shall not limit or affect the interpretation of the provisions hereof.
- D. All doubts or questions that may arise in the interpretation of the application of this Manual shall be resolved in favor of promoting fairness, accountability and transparency to the Shareholders and Stakeholders of the Corporation.

ARTICLE III
GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

A. Board of Directors

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) is primarily responsible for the governance of the Corporation and provides an independent check on management.

1. Composition of the Board of Directors

Subject to the provisions of the Corporation’s Articles of Incorporation, the Board shall be composed of at least five (5), but not more than eleven (11), members who are elected by the Shareholders and shall have at least three (3) Independent Directors or such number of Independent Directors as to constitute at least one-third (1/3) of the members of the Board, whichever is higher.

The Board shall adopt a policy on diversity which will aim to achieve a board composition that is diverse in knowledge, experience, competence and expertise.

The Board shall be composed of Executive and Non-Executive Directors, which include Independent Directors, majority of whom shall be Non-Executive Directors who possess the necessary qualifications to effectively participate and help secure objective, independent judgment on corporate affairs and to substantiate proper check and balance.

2. Qualifications for or Disqualifications from Directorship

2.1. Qualifications of a Director

In addition to the applicable provisions of the Revised Corporation Code, Securities Regulation Code, and other relevant laws the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Corporation, the following general guidelines shall be observed in the initial evaluation of Director-nominees to the Board:

- 2.1.1. He should own at least one (1) share of stock of the Corporation;
- 2.1.2. He must have a practical understanding of the business of the Corporation;
- 2.1.3. He shall have been proven to possess integrity and probity.

The Governance, Nomination, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee, may consider and recommend to the Board other qualifications which are now or may hereafter be provided in the relevant existing laws or any amendments thereto or new law applicable to the Corporation.

2.2. Permanent Disqualification of a Director

Any of the following shall be a ground for the permanent disqualification of a Director:

- 2.2.1. Any person convicted by final judgment or order by a competent judicial or administrative body of any of the following:
 - (i) Any crime that (a) involves the purchase or sale of securities as defined in the Securities Regulation Code; (b) arises out of the person's conduct as an underwriter, broker, dealer, investment adviser, principal, distributor, mutual fund dealer, futures commission merchant, commodity trading advisor, or floor broker; or (c) arises out of his fiduciary relationship with a bank, quasi-bank, trust Company, investment house or as an affiliated person of any of them;

- (ii) An offense involving moral turpitude, fraud, embezzlement, theft, estafa, counterfeiting, misappropriation, forgery, bribery, false affirmation, perjury or other fraudulent acts;
- (iii) Any person who has been adjudged by final judgment or order of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP), court, or competent administrative body to have willfully violated, or willfully aided, abetted, counseled, induced or procured the violation of any provision of the Securities Regulation Code, the Revised Corporation Code, or any other law, rule, regulation or order administered by the SEC or BSP.

2.2.2. A person who, by reason of misconduct, after hearing, is permanently enjoined by a final judgment or order of the SEC, BSP or any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction from (a) acting as underwriter, broker, dealer, investment adviser, principal, distributor, mutual fund dealer, futures commission merchant, commodity trading advisor, or floor broker; (b) acting as a director or officer of a bank, quasi-bank, trust company, investment house or as investment company; or (c) engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in any of the capacities mentioned above or willfully violating the laws that govern securities and banking activities.

The disqualification shall also apply if such person is currently the subject of an order of the SEC, BSP or any court or administrative body denying, revoking or suspending any registration, license or permit issued to him under the Revised Corporation Code, Securities Regulation Code or any other law administered by the SEC or BSP, or under any rule or regulation issued by the SEC or BSP, or has otherwise been restrained to engage in any activity involving securities and banking; or such person is the subject of an effective order of a self-regulatory organization suspending or expelling him from membership, participation or association with a member or participant of the organization;

2.2.3. Any person judicially declared to be insolvent;

2.2.4. Any person found guilty by final judgment or order of a foreign court or equivalent financial regulatory authority of acts, violations or misconduct similar to any of the acts, violations or misconduct listed in the foregoing paragraphs; and

2.2.5. Any person convicted by final judgment of an offense punishable by imprisonment for a period exceeding six (6) years, or a violation of the Revised Corporation Code committed within five (5) years prior to the date of his election or appointment.

2.3. Temporary Disqualification of a Director

The Governance, Nomination, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee may consider and recommend to the Board the temporary disqualification of a Director for any of the following reasons:

- 2.3.1. Refusal to comply with the disclosure requirements of the Securities Regulation Code and its Implementing Rules and Regulations;
- 2.3.2. Absence in more than fifty percent (50%) of all regular and special meetings of the Board during his incumbency, or any twelve (12) month period during said incumbency, unless the absence is due to illness, death in the immediate family, or serious accident. This disqualification applies for purposes of the succeeding election;
- 2.3.3. Dismissal/termination for cause as Director of any publicly-listed company, public company, registered issuer of securities and holder of a secondary license from the SEC. The disqualification shall be in effect until he has cleared himself of any involvement in the cause that gave rise to his dismissal or termination.

In the case of Par. 2.3.1, the temporarily disqualified Director shall, within sixty (60) business days from such disqualification, take the appropriate action to remedy or correct the disqualification. If he fails or refuses to do so for unjustified reasons, the disqualification shall become permanent.

3. Responsibilities, Duties and Functions of the Board

3.1. General Responsibility of the Board

It is the Board's responsibility to foster the long-term success of the Corporation, and to sustain its competitiveness and profitability in a manner consistent with its corporate objectives and the best interests of the Corporation, its Shareholders and Stakeholders, as a whole.

The Board shall formulate and annually review the Corporation's vision, mission, strategic objectives, policies and procedures that shall guide its activities, including the means to effectively monitor Management's performance.

The Board shall exercise care, skill and judgment and observe good faith and loyalty in the conduct and management of the business and affairs of the Corporation. The Board shall ensure that all its actions are within the scope of power and authority as prescribed in the Articles of Incorporation, By-Laws, and in existing laws, rules and regulations.

3.2. Duties and Functions of the Board

To ensure high standard for the Corporation, its Shareholders and other Stakeholders, the Board shall conduct itself with honesty and integrity in the performance of, among others, the following duties and responsibilities:

- 3.2.1. Act on a fully informed basis, in good faith, with due diligence and care, and in the best interest of the Company and all Stakeholders;
- 3.2.2. Oversee the development of and approve the Company's business objectives and strategy, and monitor their implementation, in order to sustain the Company's long-term viability and strength. The Board shall review and guide corporate strategy, major plans of action, risk management policies and procedures, annual budgets and business plans; set performance objectives; monitor implementation and corporate performance; and oversee major capital expenditures, acquisitions and divestitures;
- 3.2.3. Oversee the adoption of an effective succession planning program and remuneration policies;
- 3.2.4. Adopt policies on board nomination and election¹ that will ensure diversity in board composition in terms of knowledge, expertise and experience;
- 3.2.5. Oversee the implementation of a policy and system on RPTs which shall include the review and approval of material RPTs and ensure fairness and transparency of the transactions;
- 3.2.6. Oversee the adoption of policies on the selection of Management and Key Officers and the assessment of their performance;
- 3.2.7. Oversee the establishment of an internal control system to monitor and manage potential conflicts of interest and an ERM framework and policies to identify, monitor, assess, manage and report key business risks, including climate-related risks and opportunities;
- 3.2.8. Evaluate ERM effectiveness in addressing climate related risks and opportunities;
- 3.2.9. Determine whether management is taking the appropriate climate-related risk management action;

¹ The Board Nomination and Election Policy is posted at: <https://www.jgsummit.com/ph/corporate-governance/company-policies/board-nomination-and-election-policy>

- 3.2.10. Review and approve climate-related strategies and objectives as well as their implementation;
- 3.2.11. Annually review, together with Management, the Company's vision and mission;
- 3.2.12. Ensure the Corporation's faithful compliance with all applicable laws and regulations, and best business practices;
- 3.2.13. Establish and maintain an Investor Relations Program that will keep the Shareholders informed of important developments in the Corporation. The Corporation's CEO shall exercise oversight responsibility over this program;
- 3.2.14. Identify the Corporation's Stakeholders in the community in which it operates or are directly affected by its operations and formulate a clear policy of accurate, timely, and effective communication with them;
- 3.2.15. Adopt a system of check and balance within the Board. A regular review of the effectiveness of such system should be conducted to ensure the integrity of the decision-making and reporting processes at all times;
- 3.2.16. Ensure that the Corporation has an independent audit mechanism for the proper audit and review of the Corporation's financial statements by independent auditors;
- 3.2.17. Ensure that the Corporation establishes appropriate Corporate Governance policies and procedures pursuant to this Manual and the Governance Code, including but not limited to, policies on conflict of interest, and oversee the effective implementation thereof;
- 3.2.18. Consider the implementation of an alternative dispute resolution system for the amicable settlement of conflicts or differences between the Corporation and its Shareholders, if applicable; and
- 3.2.19. Consider the designation of a Lead Director among the Independent Directors if the Chairman of the Board is not an Independent Director and if the positions of the Chairman of the Board and CEO are held by one person. His role will be to lead independent directors and guide the Board in cases where matters of conflict of interest may arise.

The functions of the Lead Director include, among others, the following:

- 3.2.19.1. Serves as the intermediary between the Chairman and the other Directors when necessary;
- 3.2.19.2. Convenes and chairs meetings of the Non-Executive Directors; and

3.2.19.3. Contributes to the performance evaluation of the Chairman, as required.

4. Specific Duties and Responsibilities of a Director

A Director shall endeavor to act in the best interest of the Corporation its shareholders and stakeholders in a manner characterized by fairness, accountability, and transparency.

A Director shall observe the following norms of conduct:

- 4.1. Conduct fair and impartial business transactions with the Corporation, and ensure that his personal interest does not conflict with the interests of the Corporation;
- 4.2. Devote the time and attention necessary to properly and effectively perform his duties and responsibilities;
- 4.3. Act judiciously. Before deciding on any matter brought before the Board, a Director should carefully evaluate the issues and, if necessary, make inquiries and request clarification;
- 4.4. Exercise independent judgment. A Director should view each problem or situation objectively;
- 4.5. Have a working knowledge of the statutory and regulatory requirements that affect the Corporation, including its Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws, the rules and regulations of the SEC and, where applicable, the requirements of relevant regulatory agencies;
- 4.6. Observe confidentiality. A Director should keep secure and confidential all non-public information he may acquire or learn by reason of his position as Director;
- 4.7. Have a working knowledge of the Corporation's control systems. A Director shall ensure the continuing soundness, effectiveness and adequacy of the Corporation's control environment; and
- 4.8. Disclose to the Philippine Stock Exchange (PSE) and the SEC the trading of the Corporation's shares by Directors, Officers (or persons performing similar functions) and controlling Shareholders. This shall also include the disclosure of the Corporation's purchase of its shares from the market (e.g. share buy-back program).

5. Internal Control Responsibilities of the Board

The control environment of the Corporation consists of (a) the Board which ensures that the Corporation is properly and effectively managed and supervised; (b) Management that actively manages and operates the Corporation in a sound and prudent manner; (c) the organizational and procedural controls supported by effective management of information and risk management reporting systems; and (d) an independent audit mechanism to monitor the adequacy and effectiveness of the Corporation's governance, operations, and information systems, including the reliability and integrity of financial and operational information, the safeguarding of assets, and compliance with laws, rules, regulations and contracts.

5.1. The internal control mechanisms for the performance of the Board's oversight responsibility may include:

5.1.1. Definition of the duties and responsibilities of the CEO;

5.1.2. Selection of the person who possesses the ability, integrity and expertise essential for the position of CEO;

5.1.3. Evaluation of proposed Senior Management appointments;

5.1.4. Evaluation of appointments of Management Officers; and

5.1.5. Review of the Corporation's human resource policies, conflict of interest situations, compensation program for employees and management succession plan.

5.2. The Corporation's systems of effective organizational and operational controls shall be continuously developed and updated based on, among others, the following factors: nature and complexity of the business and the business culture; volume, size and complexity of transactions; degree of risks involved; degree of centralization and delegation of authority; extent and effectiveness of information technology; and extent of regulatory compliance.

5.3. The Corporation shall establish an Internal Audit system that can provide assurance service to the Board, Management and Shareholders and ensure that key organizational and operational controls are in place. The Board shall appoint a Chief Audit Executive to perform the Internal Audit function. The Chief Audit Executive shall be guided by the Local and International Standards on Professional Practice of Internal Auditing.

6. Board Meetings and Quorum Requirement

6.1. A quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors shall consist 2/3 of the number of directors fixed in the Articles of Incorporation.

- 6.2. The Board shall schedule meetings at the fourth quarter of the preceding year, and hold regular meetings in accordance with its By-Laws and convene special meetings when required by business exigencies.
- 6.3. The notice and agenda of the meeting and other relevant meeting materials shall be furnished to the Directors at least five (5) business days prior to each meeting, which meeting must be duly minuted.
- 6.4. The members of the Board shall attend regular and special meetings in person or through video/teleconferencing conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC except for justifiable reasons that prevent them from doing so.
- 6.5. Independent Directors shall always attend Board meetings. Unless otherwise provided in the By-Laws, their absence shall not affect the quorum requirement. However, the Board may, to promote transparency, require the presence of at least one (1) Independent Director in all its meetings.
- 6.6. The Non-Executive Directors shall have separate periodic meetings with the external auditor and heads of the internal audit, compliance and risk functions, without any executive present. The meetings are chaired by the Lead Independent Director at least once a year, immediately after one of the scheduled board meetings. They shall likewise meet separately at least once during the year without any executives present.

7. Remuneration of Directors and Officers

Formal procedures for the development of a policy on the levels of remuneration for Directors and Officers shall be established by the Corporation.

The levels of remuneration shall be sufficient to be able to attract and retain the services of qualified and competent Directors and Officers.

No Director shall participate in deciding on his remuneration.

8. Directorships in Other Corporations

The Board may consider the adoption of guidelines on the number of directorships that its members can hold in publicly-listed corporation, ensuring however that the shareholders legal right to vote and be voted as directors remains inviolable.

- 8.1. Any limitation in the number of directorships outside of the Company as may be adopted by Corporation shall not include directorships in the Corporation's subsidiaries, affiliates, parent Company (if any), and affiliates and subsidiaries of such parent Company.

8.2. A Director shall notify the Board before accepting Directorship in another Company.

B. Board Committees

To aid in the optimal performance of its roles and responsibilities and ensure compliance with the principles of Corporate Governance, the Board shall form the following Board Committees: (a) Audit, Related Party Transactions and Risk Oversight Committee (AURROC) and (b) Governance, Nomination, Remuneration and Sustainability Committee (GNRSC).

1. Appointment of Members and Adoption of Committee Charter

1.1. Appointment of Members of the Board Committees

The Board shall appoint the members and chairman (from among the members) of each Board Committee annually.

1.2. Charter of the Board Committee

1.2.1. Each Board Committee shall have a Charter which shall define and govern, among other matters, its purposes, composition, membership and duties and responsibilities, conduct of meetings, and reporting processes.

1.2.2. The respective Charters of the Board Committee shall be approved by the Board and shall not be amended, altered, or varied unless the Board shall have approved such amendment, alteration or variation.

2. Audit, Related Party Transactions and Risk Oversight Committee (AURROC)

2.1. Role of the AURROC

2.1.1. Provide oversight over the Company's financial reporting, Internal Control System, Internal and External Audit processes, and monitor compliance with applicable laws and regulations. The AURROC shall ensure that systems and processes are put in place to provide assurance in areas including reporting, monitoring compliance with laws, regulations and internal policies, efficiency and effectiveness of business operations, and proper safeguarding and use of the Corporation's resources and assets;

- 2.1.2. Ensure that there is group-wide policy and system governing Material Related Party Transactions (MRPTs), particularly those that breach the materiality threshold. The policy shall include the appropriate review and approval of MRPTs, which guarantee that transactions are transparent, conducted fairly and at arm's length; and
- 2.1.3. Oversee the establishment of ERM framework that will effectively identify, monitor, assess, manage and report key business risks, ensuring policies address climate-related risks for operational and financial resilience. The risk management framework shall guide the Board in identifying units/business lines and enterprise-level risk exposures, as well as the effectiveness of risk management strategies. The Committee shall be responsible for defining the Company's level of risk tolerance and providing oversight over its risk management policies and procedures to anticipate, minimize, control or manage risks or possible threats to its operational and financial viability;
- 2.1.4. Develop and implement a formal climate-related risk management plan, regularly evaluating its relevance and effectiveness;
- 2.1.5. Adjust risk appetite and tolerance based on climate and business developments, regulatory changes, and major external events;
- 2.1.6. Regularly report to the Board on climate-related risks, material exposures, actions taken, and recommend adjustments to risk appetite and tolerance limits;
- 2.1.7. Assess the effectiveness of the climate risk management processes.

2.2. Organization of the AURROC

- 2.2.1. The AURROC reports functionally to the Board.
- 2.2.2. The AURROC shall be composed of at least three (3) Directors, who are entirely Non-Executive Directors and the majority of whom, including the Chairman, is independent. All members must have relevant background, knowledge, skills, and/or experience in the areas of accounting, auditing and finance.

- 2.3.1.12. Assist the Board in the performance of its oversight responsibility for the financial reporting process, system of internal controls, audit process and monitoring of compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations.

2.3.2. RPT

- 2.3.2.1. Establish policy on MRPTs that promotes transparency and ensure that transactions occur under conditions that protect the rights of all stakeholders.
- 2.3.2.2. Evaluate on an ongoing basis the existing relations between and among businesses and counterparties to ensure that all related parties are continuously identified, MRPTs are monitored, and subsequent changes in relationships with counterparties (from non-related to related and vice versa) are captured. Related parties, MRPTs and changes in relationships should be reflected in the relevant reports to the Board and regulators/supervisors;

- 2.3.2.3. Evaluate all MRPTs to ensure that these are not undertaken on more favorable economic terms (e.g. price, commissions, interest rates, fees, tenor, collateral requirements) to such related parties than similar transactions with non-related parties under similar circumstances and that no corporate business resources of the company are misappropriated or misapplied, and to determine any potential reputational risk issues that may arise as a result of or in connection with the transactions. In evaluating MRPTs, the Committee takes into account, among others, the following:
- The related party's relationship to the company and interest in the transaction;
 - The material facts of the proposed MRPT, including the proposed aggregate value of such transaction;
 - The benefits to the corporation of the proposed MRPT;
 - The availability of the other sources of comparable products or services; and
 - An assessment of whether the proposed MRPT is on terms and conditions that are comparable to the terms generally available to an unrelated party under similar circumstances. The company shall have an effective price discovery system in place and exercise due diligence in determining a fair price for RPTs;
- 2.3.2.4. Ensure that appropriate disclosure is made, and/or information is provided to regulating and supervising authorities relating to the company's MRPT exposures reviewed and approved during the year including unusual or infrequently occurring transactions, and policies on conflicts of interest or potential conflicts of interest. The disclosure shall include information on the approach to managing material conflicts of interest that are inconsistent with such policies, and conflicts that could arise as a result of the company's affiliation or transactions with other related parties;
- 2.3.2.5. Report to the Board of Directors on a regular basis, the status and aggregate exposures to each related party, as well as the total amount of exposures to all related parties;

- 2.3.2.6. Ensure that transactions with related parties, including write-off of exposures are subject to periodic independent review or audit process;
- 2.3.2.7. Oversee the implementation of the system for identifying, monitoring, measuring, controlling and reporting MRPTs, including periodic review of RPT policies and procedures; and
- 2.3.2.8. If needed, appoint an independent party to evaluate the fairness of the transaction price on the acquisition and disposal of assets, particularly those passing a materiality threshold determined by the AURROC.

The Board shall ensure that its Shareholders are provided with a balanced and comprehensible assessment of the Corporation's performance, position and prospects on a quarterly basis, including interim and other reports that could adversely affect its business through its website and its submissions and disclosures to the SEC and PSE.

Management shall formulate the rules and procedures on financial reporting and internal control for presentation to the AURROC in accordance with the following guidelines:

1. The extent of its responsibility in the preparation of the financial statements of the Corporation, with the corresponding delineation of the responsibilities that pertain to the External Auditor, should be clearly defined;
 2. An effective system of internal control that will ensure the integrity of the financial reports and protection of the assets of the Corporation for the benefit of all Shareholders and other Stakeholders;
 3. On the basis of the approved Internal Audit Plan, Internal Audit examinations should cover, at the minimum, the evaluation of the adequacy and effectiveness of controls that cover the Corporation's governance, operations and information systems, including the reliability and integrity of financial and operation information, effectiveness and efficiency of operations, protection of assets, and compliance with contracts, laws, rules, and regulations; and
 4. The Corporation shall consistently comply with the financial reporting requirements of the SEC.
 5. The External Auditor shall be rotated or changed every five (5) years or earlier, or the signing partner of the External Auditing firm assigned to the Corporation, should be changed with the same frequency. The Chief Audit Executive should submit to the AURROC and Management an annual report on the Internal Audit's activities, responsibilities, and performance relative to the Internal Audit Plan as approved by the AURROC. The annual report should include significant risk exposures, control issues, and such other matters as may be needed or requested by the Board and Management. The Chief Audit Executive should certify that he conducts his activities in accordance with the International Standards on the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing. If he does not, the Chief Audit Executive shall disclose to the Board and Management the reasons why he has not fully complied with the said documents.
- B. The Board, after consultations with the AURROC, shall recommend to the Shareholders an External Auditor duly accredited by the SEC who shall undertake an independent audit of the Corporation, and shall provide an objective assurance on the matter by which the financial statements shall be prepared and presented to the Shareholders. The External Auditor shall not, at the same time, provide Internal Audit services to the Corporation. Non-audit work may be given to the External Auditor, provided it does not conflict with his duties as an independent External Auditor, or does not pose a threat to his independence.

If the External Auditor resigns, is dismissed or ceases to perform his services, the reason/s for and the date of effectivity of such action shall be reported in the Corporation's annual and current reports. The report shall include a discussion of any disagreement between the External Auditor and the Corporation on accounting principles or practices, financial disclosures or audit procedures which the former External Auditor and the Corporation failed to resolve satisfactorily.

If the External Auditor believes that any statement made in the Annual Report, Information Statement or any report filed with the SEC or any regulatory body during the period of his engagement is incorrect or incomplete, he shall give his comments or views on the matters in the said reports.

ARTICLE VI STAKEHOLDERS' RIGHTS AND PROTECTION OF MINORITY SHAREHOLDERS' INTEREST

A. Shareholders

A.1. Shareholders' Rights

The Board is committed to treat all Shareholders fairly and equitably, and shall recognize, protect and facilitate the exercise of their rights. These rights relate to the following among others:

- 1. Right to participate and vote on all matters that require their consent or approval in general shareholder meetings, including election and removal of Board members
- 2. Right to inspect corporate books and records

Any stockholder who desires to exercise his right to inspect corporate books and records of the Company must make a written request addressed to the Corporate Secretary, and stating the specific reason(s) or purpose(s) for the inspection. The exercise of such right may be denied if:
